CANNELTON TO RECEIVE $2 MILLION DOLLAR SETTLEMENT FOR CAN-CLAY SITE

In 2021 the city of Cannelton filed a lawsuit against Harsco and Can-Clay, the former owners of the Can-Clay property, for environmental contamination while the factory was in operation. The city will receive slightly more than $1.5 million for the remaining cleanup of environmental waste at the site. Once the cleanup is completed, the city hopes to start redevelopment of the property by the end of 2027.
